Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio has some volunteer and giving opportunities available.

Catholic charities teaches sewing to refugees and Su Casa Clients. They are looking for donations of Sewing shears, Christmas materials( no wool please) Christmas patterns, quilt batting and portable sewing machines in working condition. If you have anything to donate contact Mary Joan at 513-672-3733.

They are also looking for Computer Lab Monitors for Hispanic Youth. You will be working with young people (mainly high school) newly arrived in the U.S. Spanish and computer skills essential. Michelle Spotts 513-672-3725.

Amen, Amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." John

Opening Prayer

Almighty ever-living God, whom, taught by the Holy Spirit, we dare to call our Father, bring, we pray, to perfection in our hearts the spirit of adoption as your sons and daughters, that we may merit to enter into the inheritance which you have promised. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflecting on Living the Gospel

“The Jews murmured” because they could not get beyond their limited perception of who they thought Jesus was to the mystery about himself he reveals: “I am the bread of life,” the Bread “come down from heaven,” the Bread to whom we must come, the Bread who gives us a share in his “eternal life,” the Bread in whom we must believe, the Bread who gives Self “for the life of the world.” Jesus persists in revealing himself as the Bread sent by God to nourish the crowd (and us) for the journey to eternal Life. Jesus gives his life so that we might have new Life: “the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” The surprise of the gospel is that Jesus himself, as the “bread . . . from heaven,” is both the promise and fulfillment of the eternal Life for which we long.

In the mystery of Christ we are reminded that life and death always go together. If we wish to live, we must be willing to die to ourselves. We are able to embrace dying to self because, through Jesus, we know that in the very dying is new life. Jesus has gone before us and taught us that death brings life. Cross leads to resurrection. Dying leads to eternal Life. God’s persistence in bringing us Life is a gift, indeed. It is also mystery. But the gift and mystery invite more than our own openness to receive. To receive God’s gift of Life—Jesus as living bread—is to pledge ourselves also to bring that Life of God to others through the good we do every day for others.

Closing Prayers

May we believe ever more firmly and live ever more fully the mystery of Jesus who gives himself to us as the Bread of Life.

May we learn from Jesus how to give ourselves more fully for the life of the world.

Our Father . . .

For Reflection:

- The depth of the mystery of who Jesus reveals himself to be moves me to . . .
- When I come to Jesus, “the bread of life,” what happens is . . .

Suggestions for group and individual use:

1. Pray aloud the opening prayer (in The Roman Missal called the “collect”);
2. One person read aloud the gospel;
3. Each read prayerfully “Reflecting on Living the Gospel” and spend some time in personal prayer;
4. Share together responses to “For Reflection”;
5. Pray the “Closing Prayers.”

Gospel

John 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said,
 “I am the bread that came down from heaven,”
 and they said,
 “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say,
 ‘I have come down from heaven?’”
 Jesus answered and said to them,
 “Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day.
 It is written in the prophets:
They shall all be taught by God.
 Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me.

Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.
 Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”
